

At first I follow you, then I love you

Please stop!

I cannot any more chase you everywhere

In the world without an answer.

I cannot any more, without telling you that I love you.

At first I follow you, then I love you.

Yes, I'll do that.

At first I follow you, then I love you.

Love. Love changes the situations.

Love. The love changes the roles.

Love. The love is putting us the test,

He has changed our life.

We have changed, admit it!

Please understand me!

I don't want to play to chase you without a break.

I cannot any more allow to do it because I love you.

At first I follow you, then I love you.

Yes, I'll do that.

At first I follow you, then I love you.
