

Loving you, life

In this world, full of sex an' drugs,
Full of dangerous killers without
A scruple for the life
I improvise me a new paladin for
Justice and verity, for the eyes
Of a sweet and splendid girl.

Loving you, life, I fill an emotion as a burning knife.
Loving you, life.
So now I write a new song that you will dance in the night.
All right.
Loving you, life, I fill an emotion as a burning knife.
Loving you, life.
So now I write a new song that you will dance in the night.
All right.

Once upon a long ago,
A magician, who loved the life,
Became Templar's knight.
You are my love, my light, my life.
I always will be your knight,
Forever named "The Saint".

Loving you, life, I fill an emotion as a burning knife.
Loving you, life.
So now I write a new song that you will dance in the night.
All right.
Loving you, life, I fill an emotion as a burning knife.
Loving you, life.
So now I write a new song that you will dance in the night.
Oh, loving you life.

Loving you, life, I fill an emotion as a burning knife.
Loving you, life.
So now I write a new song that you will dance in the night.
All right. Loving you, life, I fill an emotion as a burning knife.
Loving you, life.
So now I write a new song that you will dance in the night.
Oh, loving you, life...

Loving you, life...
